

Academic EDITING for capstone

Writing a capstone? There is more than detailed research required to produce an outstanding contribution to the literature. Working with an academic editor helps ensure all the details get met.

Available Services

- Drafting an outline that lays out the criteria for each chapter's section
- Working off your prof's critiques to provide guidance on how to move forward
- Providing a style guide formatting review, full reference checks, and proofreading
- Queries and comments in a developmental edit for:
  - suggestions on the argument's logic
  - where research could be strengthened in the lit review
  - the narrative flow of the work
  - grammatical conventions
  - abbreviations, terms, and underdeveloped ideas
  - crafting the research question(s)
